Shepherd's crook.

The crook is made with wire, bent into a crook shape and covered over with brown crochet thread (size 18 was used). The sc stitches are compact and tightly together and twisted irregularly around the crook. NOT recommended for children.

Sewing up

The top of the body is shaped to slightly tilt so that the shepherd's head is sewn onto the body with a downward tilting angle. Sew the arms to the body and stitch 'hands' in skin tone. If including a shepherd's crook, sew one arm over the crook (see photo) and sew the crook itself to the body, all the way down the length so it is straight. The headdress is shaped and is sewn to the head and back over the arms. Sew the beard to the face and top of body. Sew the belt firmly to the body use photo as guide. The finger puppet is complete now or stuff and sew on base if a stand up figure is being made.
